

Krisi Schell

Krisi Schell, Executive Vice President of HR, SRC Holdings Corporation, has over twenty years' experience in human resources and general business serving both large and small organizations. Krisi's role at SRC allows the teams focused on people and culture to collaborate and leverage our organizations' skills in people services, marketing and communications, community relations and our Open Book, Great Game of Business expertise. Krisi is committed to creating a dominate workforce by building a business of businesspeople who think, act and feel like owners.

Krisi graduated from MSU with a bachelor's in Psychology and minor in Human Resources Management and holds the Professional in Human Resources and SHRM-CP designations. She currently serves as a board member for SRC Holdings Corporation; the Great Game of Business; Springfield Innovation, Inc.; Burrell, Inc.; Multipli Credit Union Board Supervisory Committee and United Way of the Ozarks Board Development Committee.