

Monica Horton

Horton is a native of Kansas City, MO. She holds a MPA degree from MSU, a Master of Music Therapy degree from FSU and is a proud HBCU graduate of Tuskegee University with a Bachelor's degree in Psychology. Horton has been self-employed for 11 years and currently owns Lenica Consulting Group a small business that leads work and leadership teams through a process of visioning, strategy, and engagement for impact and results. She is a Leadership Springfield board member and a member of Signature Class 36. She counts it a huge honor to serve on Springfield City Council from the heart and soul of Springfield - Zone 1.