

Dr. Amy Wutke

Dr. Wutke has served as the president of Cox College since 2017. She served as the college's vice president for Academic Affairs from 2014-2017. During her tenure, she has led the institution through significant developments such as an additional campus in Monett and the addition of an occupational therapy doctorate.

Dr. Wutke has also lead Cox College through a time of great renewal. A landmark in the Springfield community since 1907, the college was completely renovated in 2019 and the state of the art simulation center was renovated in 2020.

Dr. Wutke's influence on Springfield's educational community goes back even further than her time at Cox College. From 2007 to 2014, Dr. Wutke served as the director of Springfield Catholic Schools (SCS). While at SCS, Dr. Wutke helped Springfield Catholic High School become nationally recognized as one of the top 50 in the country. She also led a $13.9 million dollar renovation and expansion of the high school campus, added an elementary school, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, to the system and added a three-year-old preschool program to the school system.

On a personal note, Dr. Wutke was raised in southern New England. She has degrees in history and administration, as well as an Ed.D in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis from the University of Missouri-Columbia. She was selected as one of the Springfield Business Journal's Most Influential Women in 2010, and is an alumna of the Leadership Springfield Class 24.

Dr. Wutke lives in Springfield with her four children.
