

Sheila Pippin

Music and Ministry are the passions of Sheila Pippin's life. She has spent over 45 years as a choral director in public schools and in churches. She currently serves on the pastoral team at Schweitzer Church in Springfield as the Pastor of Congregational Care.

She achieved her undergraduate and graduate degrees in Music Education at Missouri State University, where she also attained a diploma in vocal performance. Sheila is the founder of the Boys Choir of Springfield, a community choir for young men. She has served our community as a volunteer for Crosslines, Salvation Army, Harmony House, Breast Cancer Foundation of the Ozarks, and Springfield Public Schools.

Sheila and her husband Sam have five amazing children and nine exceptional grandchildren who create beautiful chaos in their lives!
