

Regina Greer Cooper

Regina Greer Cooper is the retired Executive Director of the Springfield Greene County Library District. She served in that position for 15 years from January 2009 through December 2023. Regina moved to Springfield from Huntsville, Alabama, where she worked in many capacities at the Huntsville Madison County Public Library over 28 years, most recently as an Associate Director.

Born in north Mississippi, Regina received a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Mississippi and a Master's in Library Science Degree from George Peole College, now part of Vanderbilt University. She was employed in academic libraries in Mississippi and public libraries in Alabama before moving to Springfield.

In Springfield, Regina served on the Junior League Advisory Board, the Chamber of Commerce Board and the Springfield Symphony Board. She was a member of Downtown Rotary, the Good Community Committee, the Springfield Barons, the Leadership Academy Advisors and was a member of Leadership Springfield Class 25.

Regina is married to the late Dr. William H. Cooper, a retired minister, teacher/professor and writer. They are the parents of two sons: Ben of Madison, AL, and Will who lives with his wife Erin in Los Angeles, CA.