

Monica Horton

Monica Horton is founder and CEO of Lenica Consulting Group, a company specializing in all things strategic planning, program evaluation, and data analysis. Horton is the Zone 1 representative on Springfield City Council where she serves as chair of the Public Involvement Committee. Horton is a proud HBCU graduate of Tuskegee University holding a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2001. Following undergraduate studies, Horton earned 2 advanced degrees in music therapy (FSU '05) and public administration (MSU '15).

She is happily married to Dr. Leonard Horton of 23 years and they are proud parents of a brilliant teenage daughter.