

Gabriela Verdugo-Johnson

Gabriela Verdugo Johnson is a bilingual real estate broker/salesperson, entrepreneur, and community leader based in Springfield, Missouri. Originally from Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, she came to the United States on a full swimming scholarship and went on to become a national champion and All American athlete. Today, she leads the Dulce Hogar Team at Murney Associates, helping families buy, sell, and invest in real estate with a special focus on serving the Hispanic community.

She is also the President and co founder of the Hispanic Networking Group in the Ozarks, where the goal is to support the Hispanic community in the Ozarks by creating and organizing events that raise funds for nonprofits already doing the work. In addition, Gabriela is the co owner of The Chicas Club, an all women's gym focused on empowerment and strength.

Through business, fitness, and community leadership, she is passionate about creating opportunities, building connections, and helping others grow.

