

Ozarks Literacy Council

Board Opportunity

Ozarks Literacy Council supports our community through literacy programming, including 1:1 tutoring for adults and youth who are learning to read or improving their reading comprehension, as well as classroom reading programs. Board members provide financial oversight and organizational governance and support the Executive Director with fundraising, community outreach, and program enhancement.

Requirements:

- Attend 10 of 12 meetings; participate in discussions and bring your ideas
- Actively support the organization's mission and vision; participate in strategic planning
- Ensure legal and ethical integrity
- Chair or serve on a standing committee
- Be willing to advocate for OLC in social situations
- Volunteer to assist with literacy programs as needed
- Assist as needed with your personal and vocational skills, knowledge, and connections
- Solicit donations or contributions during special events; actively participate in and support fundraising events
- Support United Way of the Ozarks campaigns
- Annually contribute to OLC in an amount significant to you — through monetary contributions, facilitating outside donations, personal or employer event sponsorships, donated fundraiser items, in-kind professional services, or other means

Meeting times: Second Tuesday of each month, 6:00–7:30 pm, at Pasta Express on E Battlefield.

How to Apply: Contact Lori Beeson, Executive Director, at lbeeson@ozarksliteracy.org.
